Miss Sands Entertains.
Miss Marie Stuart Sands, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conway Sands, was hostess at a very unique Halloween party last night at the home of her parents, 1527 Hanover Avenue. The whole house was decorated in hallowed pine and autumn leaves, and the only lights were candles shaded with tiny pumpkins. In the dining-room, the table was set with an enormous pumpkin filled with yellow chrysanthemums and surrounded with fruits and bright autumn flowers. Garlands of evergreens were used everywhere. Two ghosts greeted the guests at the door and the hostess received with two ghosts and a witch. Halloween games and frolics amused those present and a fascinating gypsy, in a red peaked hat and flowing cloak, told fortunes on the table, the while she stirred her streaming cauldron.

It was one of the most unique and charming affairs of its kind given in Richmond for some time past.

Leaves for the South.
Mrs. James B. Taylor, formerly of this city, left yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, in Houston, Tex. Later, Mrs. Taylor will go to Jacksonville, Fla., where she will visit her son, Dr. H. M. Taylor, Surgeon Party.

A delightful surprise birthday luncheon party was tendered to P. S. Bullington at his residence in Highland Park, on Friday by his friends. Moore, at the Union Theological Seminary, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Valentine, at 2348 Monument Avenue, for the next week. Lady Ramsay will make an address on "Equal Suffrage" Thursday afternoon, November 6, at 5 o'clock in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association, corner of Seventh and Grace Streets. Municipal suffrage has existed in Scotland for generations, and Lady Ramsay has rendered valuable service in the civic life of her town, having served on school boards and done other work along that line. Sir William Ramsay is also a suffragist, and in Scotland the first public school he made was in behalf of the medical training of women. The public he cordially invited to hear the lecture Thursday afternoon.

HER SALON WAS MOST EXCLUSIVE IN PARIS

Real Old Aristocracy of France

Always Welcomed by Countess Rochefoucauld.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENAY.

ALTHOUGH Count Almyre de la Rochefoucauld is only a cadet of the illustrious house of Rochefoucauld, which possesses no less than six old French dukedoms, as well as one of Spain, and another of Italy, yet his wife, whose death has just taken place at her chateau of Vertueil, was easily the leading member of the family, and the one to whom all of them deferred.

President of the Children's Protection Society of France, her salon was renowned as the most exclusive in the French capital. It has been the one salon from which the new rich and foreign rascailleux element has always been rigorously barred, and where the real old aristocracy of France, therefore, loved to foregather with forebears of rank and birth equal to their own. With all that, she was extremely kind, generous, gracious, as well as simple and unaffected in her manner, retaining to the last traces of the famous blond beauty of her younger days.

Her husband is renowned as the leading authority in France in all matters of ancestry, lineage, heraldry and etiquette. He has made a study of these, and is referred to in this connection on all occasions. But he is dreaded by those who bear titles to hereditary devices to which they have no claim. For he is merciless in his denunciation of these practices, for which there are no penalties in France save those of ridicule and contempt.

It is known that he has devoted a considerable amount of his leisure and much care to the writing of the memoirs of his times, and that he has been permitted to obtain a glimpse thereof declare that they surpass those famous reminiscences of the Duc de St. Simon. For it seems that he writes quite as sarcastically

HER TROUBLES BEGAN EARLY

Young Lady Relates Her Experience, and Tells How She Overcame Troubles Which Started at Fifteen

Paulina, La.—"When I was only fifteen years old" says Miss Lizzie St. Pierre, of this town, "I began suffering from womanly troubles. I had all kinds of pains, felt nervous, dizzy and weak, had headache, backache, and with all that I had fever."

I commenced taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it made me perfectly well. Am only 17 years old now, but feel a whole lot younger. Mama got so she couldn't sleep, and always felt dizzy. She took the Cardui treatment, and now she is in perfect health.

If you think the publication of this letter will encourage other suffering ladies to try Cardui, you may print it. I certainly feel thankful for what Cardui has done for my mother and me."

Thousands of women have written, like Miss St. Pierre, to tell of the beneficial results they obtained by taking this well-known woman's remedy. You must believe that Cardui will help you, because it has helped so many others.

Composed of purely vegetable, medicinal ingredients, having a gentle, strengthening action on the system, Cardui is a reliable remedy for young and old, with absolutely no bad after-effects. Try it, and you will find it of benefit whenever you need a tonic. At the nearest drug store.

supreme" the Maison Dore, where old Father Voronin ruled the roost, the Cafe Anglaise, and Bremond also Durand's, which is now being torn down. It was these restaurants which won in the early portion of the middle of the nineteenth century (and as the principal temples of the cult of gastronomy. In fact, of them all, practically only one really remains, namely, the quiet and somewhat dingy old Restaurant Volain, still owned by Braquiesse, and which, dear to veteran diplomats and to old Parisians specially dear, indeed, to the late King Edward, who knew his Paris so well, is still celebrated for its wines and for its cuisine.

King Edward, I may add, during his numerous stays in Paris, both prior and subsequent to his accession to the throne, was wont to avail himself of the unique privilege of having all the wines served at his table, either at his hotel, and in later years at the embassy, fetched from Volain's, which otherwise does not permit its wines to leave its premises, save in the interior of its customers.

ALGER GETS SEVEN YEARS IN PRISON

Convicted of Murder of Oswald Gray, to Which His Brother Confessed.

Lynchburg, Va., October 31.—Charged with being implicated in the murder of Oswald Gray in this country, August 5, Emanuel Alger was given seven years in the penitentiary by a jury in Lynchburg. The verdict came as a surprise to friends of the defendant, who he would be acquitted. The older brother, Thomas Alger, confessed to the crime while on the stand, saying that Emanuel was present and had no part in the tragedy. Alger's attorney, Senators Parks and Walcott, announced that the case would be taken immediately to the Supreme Court. Thomas Alger, against whom the crime was lodged by his confession, was placed on trial in a few days. Leon, the younger brother, is also awaiting trial.

CLAIMS OF SOCIALISTS.

They Are Presented in Communication to Lynchburg Voters.

Lynchburg, Va., October 31.—The campaign committee of the Socialist party of Lynchburg, headed by A. P. Thomas, has addressed a communication to the voters of the city, in which it asks consideration for its candidate, H. S. Jones, for the House of Delegates in the election next Tuesday. A copy of the party platform is inclosed with the circular, and the distribution throughout the city by the mails to-day appears to have been general. The circular, while bringing out the fact that the Socialist party is not committed to either side of the liquor question, shows the candidate, Mr. Jones, is, and it brings out the claim that the majority of the State Senate should not have the right to refuse the petition of 35,000 citizens desiring to vote on the liquor question.

The signatures to the circular are: A. P. Thomas, J. C. Glavin, J. L. Degees, C. D. Minnick, J. A. Scott, A. D. Yoder, H. L. Thompson, Orville Skinner, C. W. Mitchell and W. B. Jordan.

Tucker, as State Senator from Bedford, Landon Lowry, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of this county, states that he will insist upon a successor being chosen by a convention, rather than a primary election.
